25X1

There is enclosed herewith a statement of facts and recommendations of the Contracting Officer dated April 24, 1956, together with necessary background documentation.

The cognizant Contracting Officer has recommended that this claim, which is essentially a request for reformation of the contract because of an inadvertent mistake in bidding, be referred to you for decision; and, further, that the requested relief be denied. The undersigned concurs in these recommendations.

However, should your office make a determination which would require expenditure of funds above the amount presently stated in the contract, this Agency has available the funds necessary for such payment.

Your decision concerning this Contractor's claim for relief will be appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
